Samuel W. Jensch, Esquire
Chief Hearing Examiner
U. S. Atomic Energy Commission
Washington, D. C.

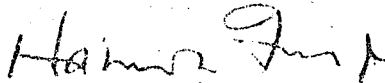

Dear Mr. Jensch:

Consolidated Edison's proposed Indian Point plant No. 2 raises a number of serious environmental issues and questions which deeply concern me. As a result of the recent Congressional reapportionment in New York, I will be running in the new 25th Congressional District, which contains that part of Westchester County in the Indian Point facility is located.

Thus, this is to formally request that I be permitted to make a limited appearance statement at the next session of the evidentiary hearing on Indian Point No. 2 (AEC Docket Number 50-247). It is my understanding that the next hearing is scheduled for Monday, June 19th at the Springvale Inn, Croton-on-Hudson. If possible, I would prefer to appear on that Monday, since Congressional business will require me to be in Washington later in the week.

Your courtesy and assistance on this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Hamilton Fish, Jr.
Member of Congress
