General Comment

Currently, some of NRR's Office Instruction's (OI's) are publicly available. However, some are non-publicly available. Since the OI's describe activities involving NRR's stakeholders, including the public, all of them should be made publicly available.

Note, some of the OI's that are currently non-publicly available, were previously publicly available. A decision was made in recent years to change the availability, however, it's not clear why that decision was made.
