Dear Mr. Blomeke:

After I issued your new NRC License No. 21-26597-02MD, on January 15, 2010, and the first corrected copy on January 16, 2010, I learned that the license number assigned to you was incorrect because it was based upon the mailing address used for your Lansing, Michigan pharmacy. Hence, it was originally assigned as the "-02" to the Lansing, Michigan license no. 21-26597-01MD. This was an error.

Enclosed is a second corrected copy of your NRC Materials License, which now bears the correct number 21-32278-01MD, which is based upon the Kalamazoo, Michigan address of your new pharmacy.

If you have already provided copies of the first versions of your new NRC license, that bear the "now-incorrect" license number, to your vendors, etc., please be assured that those versions of your license were understood to be correct and valid at the times they were issued.

Hereafter, please use the Second Corrected Copy of your license with number 21-32278-01MD.

I also made some minor adjustments to your tie-down Condition in License Condition No. 23.C.

All changes made to the license are shown in bold font.

We apologize for any inconvenience this error may have caused you.

NRC's Regulatory Issue Summary (RIS) 2005-31 provides criteria to identify security-related sensitive information and guidance for handling and marking of such documents. This ensures that potentially sensitive information is not made publicly available through ADAMS, the NRC's electronic document system.

Pursuant to NRC's RIS 2005-31 and in accordance with 10 CFR 2.390, the enclosed license document is exempt from public disclosure because its disclosure to unauthorized individuals could present a security vulnerability.

The RIS may be located on the NRC Web site at: <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/doc-collections/gen-comm/reg-issues/2005/ri200531.pdf> and the link for frequently asked questions regarding protection of security related sensitive information may be located at: <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/sensitive-info/faq.html>.
