

PROPOSED LICENSE RESTORATION PLAN

- Take the last annual written requalification examination for benchmarking weak areas.
- Review all plant modifications selected for training since license was terminated.
- Complete 100 hours of structured classroom review on plant systems, normal and off-normal operating procedures, emergency operating procedures, plant administrative procedures, and the emergency plan.
- Complete 100 hours of simulator training on normal, off-normal, and emergency plant operations.
- Conduct a plant heatup and startup to 100% power followed by a shutdown and cooldown to cold shutdown on the simulator.
- Take a comprehensive requalification annual operating exam and biennial written examination.
- Conduct 40 hours on shift and plant tour for license activation.
- Submit new personal qualification statement - NRC Form 398.
- Submit new certification of medical examination - NRC Form 396.