Subject: Moore Ranch BLM mineral Map

Behram, attached is a map that shows the mineral ownership for the Moore Ranch project. As you will note all the project facilities are on private mineral or are BLM mineral under claim staked by Energy Metals Corp. (EMC). Other areas (outside of our claims) on the map in blue (hatched) with in the License/Permit boundary may, and are likely, under claim by another company or retained by the BLM. This is the same Map as Figure 1.2-2 in the ER with the EMC claims added. On a related note how are the RAI's coming? Any idea on a schedule of when can expect to see them? If you have any additional questions please do not hesitate to contact Mike or me.

Thanks
