RE: Standby Letter of Credit for Aerotest Operations, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am the Client Manager for X-Ray Industries and related entities at Bank of America. My client has informed me that the pending Indirect License Transfer of the Aerotest Radiography and Research Reactor will require the Bank to issue a Letter of Credit of approximately $300,000 as part of the funding requirement for decommissioning.

Please be assured that we are prepared to issue this Letter of Credit based on terms discussed with X-Ray Industries upon License Transfer. We have reviewed the sample provided in "Appendix B-5" and found this acceptable.

Please feel free to contact me with any additional questions or concerns.

Sincerely,
Bryan Hatto
