Dear Ms. Ullrich,

While reviewing the US Army Research Laboratory's (ARL's) Financial Assurance Document submitted to your office on December 12, 2006 we noted two (2) minor typographical errors.

The correction of these errors is in the interest of accuracy only and does not affect the level or cost of any future decommissioning of facilities covered by SMB-141.

In the Certification of Financial Assurance (CFA) we stated that we are licensed to possess 199 kilograms of Thorium. However, we are licensed to possess 100 kilograms of Thorium-232.

Please note this change in our CFA.

The point of contact for questions or comments is Mr. Richard A. Markland, (410) 278-6354, electronic mail address markland@arl.army.mil.

Sincerely,

Pamela E. Fry
Experimentation Support Manager
