I see, I was using the old name Protoactinium (1918-1949). This is how it is spelled in the old Health Physics Handbook. It was shortened to Protactinium in 1949 (if you believe wikipedia).

The version that I have has Protactinium spelled correctly.

Dennis,

As I was manipulating my regs file again, it appears that Protoactinium is still spelled wrong in Subchapter 12.11(b) Table 9. Would you be so kind as to fix it in your version? Thank you.
