Attachment B – Program Description

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission Trade School and Community College Scholarship Grant

Lea County is in one of the new corridors of nuclear related development. Beginning with the Waste Isolation Pilot Plant (WIPP), which opened in 1999, continuing with the announcement of the Nuclear Enrichment Facility in 2004 and the licensing of the NEF in 2006, the area has experienced a rapid growth in the nuclear related industry. In addition, the area will be home to a nuclear waste processing site and a Very High Temperature Test Nuclear Reactor located near Andrews, Texas. This has created the need for hundreds of qualified technicians and professionals to operate and manage the facilities.

New Mexico Junior College, Located in Hobbs New Mexico is at the center of this emerging corridor. NMJC is already a primary provider of training for the National Enrichment Facility (NEF) and Enrichment Technology (ET US). NMJC has worked with them to develop a training curriculum for plant assemblers and operators. With assistance from the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, NMJC developed and accredited an energy technology degree that focuses on nuclear technicians and radiological control specialist.

With the nearly 1000 nuclear related jobs in the area, and planned and potential growth opportunities that could double this workforce over the next seven years, it is critical that we create a pipeline of qualified individuals to fill the new opportunities and replace existing workers in an aging workforce. It is now important to address the financial concerns of potential students.

Leveraged Funds

New Mexico Junior College has worked with industry to create some scholarship opportunities with a commitment from the NEF facility of $25,000 to support student in the energy degree plan. Additionally NMJC has created dual credit track for high school juniors and seniors, allowing them to complete portions of the curriculum while still students at their local high schools. This makes part of the education eligible for state education funds to offset the cost of tuition and books.

The partner companies have also committed to an employee training program that articulates with the degree program.

Scholarship Needs

While this begins to address the needs, there are still three key areas that need to be addressed:

- Additional scholarship funds for students that have begun the program in high school but now need to complete the degrees and internships at New Mexico Junior College.
- Individuals in the workforce that desire to enter the industry but do not have the technical and industry specific skills needed.
- Individual that are already technically trained but need to certification necessary for a career in the nuclear industry

Number and Type of Scholarships

NMJC proposes to implement a scholarship program that will address these areas and make effective use of all funds available. This program will use the NRC funding to provide scholarships to 20 degree-seeking and 25 certificate-seeking students from the three areas listed.

Recruitment activities and specific marketing strategies

Our recruiting effort is very intensive in our local area as local high schools are visited to make students contacts as well as making contacts with the administration and counselors at those institutions. We also have prospective students attend recruiting events on the New Mexico Junior College campus in which the students receive tours and visit with our NRC Program

Manager about the certifications and degree plan. Our recruiting efforts also include many one-on-one interviews with potential students. With the use of technology we are also recruiting across the country via the web through email and networking. We will develop a user-friendly website for the scholarship program to enhance our recruiting effort. We are presently developing a video that will be utilized in recruiting efforts and will also be on the Energy Technology website. This is a cooperative effort with industry leaders in our area such as Louisiana Energy Services (LES), Waste Isolation Pilot Plant (WIPP), Waste Control Specialist (WCS), and Enrichment Technology United States (ETUS). Through our recruitment we have nine students presently on the NRC Scholarship along with twenty-one students that have either been approved or have applied for the spring semester. An area that we feel is important in our recruitment process is that of minority recruitment. We are working with our local schools to create an inclusive environment in our Dual Credit Renewable Energy Program while recruiting top talent from a variety of backgrounds and experience. It is our goal to attract females and minorities. We will be working with local leaders to expand our efforts to address all aspects of inclusiveness. We seek to examine issues and share ideas and best practices regarding diversity. A scholarship committee has been formed with members from LES, WIPP, WCS, ETUS, NRC Program Manager, Dean of Training & Outreach, and Vice-President of Training & Outreach.

The NRC Program Manager receives the applications and meets with the committee to evaluate the application and make scholarship awards. The scholarship program committee will evaluate the program effectiveness by regularly examining the academic record of the scholarship recipients and conduct an exit survey of the graduates.

Scholarship Administration and Institutional Commitment

The NRC Scholarship program is jointly administered by the Financial Aid Office and the NRC Program Manager of New Mexico Junior College. The Financial Aid Office will manage the scholarship funds upon approval of the NRC Program Manager. Once the students have been approved and begin classes they are assigned a faculty advisor and will also be monitored and advised by the NRC Program Manager. The dual advisors will assist the student with course scheduling, monitor student progress, and assist with other student related matters. The NRC Program Manager will have the responsibility to track the scholarship student's progress. Selection Process: New Mexico Junior College Foundation serves as the scholarship agent for NMJC. An eight-step process is in place to determine both the academic and financial status of potential awardees. Every student upon completing this process will have their packet evaluated by the scholarship committee and selections will be made based on the criteria of the particular funding program. New Mexico Junior College agrees to require individual scholarship students to accept the service agreement terms as defined. Upon receiving notification of the award students will sign a letter of acceptance that outlines all of the terms of the award. (<http://www.nrc.gov/aboutnrc/grants/trade-svc-agreement.pdf>) This document outlines the requirements of the NRC Scholarship Program. Once the scholarship is awarded, the foundation will monitor students to make sure that they remain in compliance with the award.

Evaluation Plan:

New Mexico Junior College will implement an evaluation plan that provides information on the effectiveness of the project in attracting, preparing, and retaining individuals in nuclear careers.

- Provide data on students that tracks student progress that also includes indicators for benchmarking progress.
- Provide evidence of an increase of students enrolling in the nuclear energy (and related programs) as documented by annual enrollment figures. Provide evidence of an increase in students applying for area openings in the nuclear energy field.

NRC-38-10-917

- Evaluate outcomes that include whether or not the programs have produced the desired impact, and if the recruitment coordinator and the program directors have the resources, training, and time to produce successful results.
- Work area industry partners to determine the preparedness of students completing the program for employment in the field.
- Assign a designated counselor to make regular follow-up meeting with students to ensure that issues are resolved. New Mexico Junior College current tracks all students' progress through the institution and follow-up employment using an institutional database and information provided from the NM Department of Labor and Local Businesses.

2. Award Package

Grant Performance Metrics:

The Office of Management and Budget requires all Federal Agencies providing funding for educational scholarships and fellowships as well as other educational related funding to report on specific metrics. These metrics are part of the Academic Competitiveness Council's (ACC) 2007 report and specifically relates to Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) curricula.

As part of the FY 2010 HR grant awards, in addition to the customary performance progress report requested on the SF-PPR, SF-PPR-B, and SF-PPR-E forms, HR requires the following metrics to be reported on by the awardees as follows:

Trade Schools and Community College Awards

1. The number and percentage of STEM graduates who take a job in a STEM or STEM-related field.

The Grantee is the responsible authority, without recourse to the NRC, regarding the settlement and satisfaction of all contractual and administrative issues arising out of procurements entered into in support of an award or other agreement. This includes disputes, claims, protests of award, source evaluation or other matters of a contractual nature. Matters concerning violation of statute are to be referred to such Federal, State or local authority as may have proper jurisdiction.

Ownership of copyright by the Government through assignment is permitted under 17 USC § 105.

III. Programmatic Requirements

Performance (Technical) Reports

a. The Grantee shall submit performance (technical) reports electronically to the NRC Project Officer and Grants Officer as specified in the special award conditions in the same frequency as the Federal Financial Report unless otherwise authorized by the Grants Officer.

b. Unless otherwise specified in the award provisions, performance (technical) reports shall contain brief information as prescribed in the applicable uniform administrative requirements 2 CFR §215.51 which are incorporated in the award.

c. The Office of Human Resources requires the submission of the semi-annual progress report on the SF-PPR, SF-PPR-B, and the SF-PPR-E forms. The submission for the six month period ending March 31st is due by April 30th. The submission for the six month period ending September 30th is due by October 31st.

Unsatisfactory Performance

Failure to perform the work in accordance with the terms of the award and maintain at least a satisfactory performance rating or equivalent evaluation may result in designation of the Grantee as high risk and assignment of special award conditions or other further action as specified in the standard term and condition entitled "Termination".

Failure to comply with any or all of the provisions of the award may have a negative impact on future funding by NRC and may be considered grounds for any or all of the following actions: establishment of an accounts receivable, withholding of payments under any NRC award, changing the method of payment from advance to reimbursement only, or the imposition of other special award conditions, suspension of any NRC active awards, and termination of any NRC award.

Other Federal Awards With Similar Programmatic Activities

The Grantee shall immediately provide written notification to the NRC Project Officer and the Grants Officer in the event that, subsequent to receipt of the NRC award, other financial assistance is received to support or fund any portion of the program description incorporated into the NRC award. NRC will not pay for costs that are funded by other sources.

Prohibition Against Assignment By The Grantee

The Grantee shall not transfer, pledge, mortgage, or otherwise assign the award, or any interest therein, or any claim arising thereunder, to any party or parties, banks, trust companies, or other financing or financial institutions without the express written approval of the Grants Officer.

Site Visits

The NRC, through authorized representatives, has the right, at all reasonable times, to make site visits to review project accomplishments and management control systems and to provide such technical assistance as may be required. If any site visit is made by the NRC on the premises of the Grantee or contractor under an award, the Grantee shall provide and shall require his/her contractors to provide all reasonable facilities and assistance for the safety and convenience of the Government representative in the performance of their duties. All site visits and evaluations shall be performed in such a manner as will not unduly delay the work.

IV. Miscellaneous Requirements

Criminal and Prohibited Activities

- a. The Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act (31 USC §§ 3801-3812), provides for the imposition of civil penalties against persons who make false, fictitious, or fraudulent claims to the Federal government for money (including money representing grant/cooperative agreements, loans, or other benefits.)
- b. False statements (18 USC § 287), provides that whoever makes or presents any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statements, representations, or claims against the United States shall be subject to imprisonment of not more than five years and shall be subject to a fine in the amount provided by 18 USC § 287.
- c. False Claims Act (31 USC 3729 et seq), provides that suits under this Act can be brought by the government, or a person on behalf of the government, for false claims under federal assistance programs.
- d. Copeland "Anti-Kickback" Act (18 USC § 874), prohibits a person or organization engaged in a federally supported project from enticing an employee working on the project from giving up a part of his compensation under an employment contract.

American-Made Equipment And Products

Grantees are hereby notified that they are encouraged, to the greatest extent practicable, to purchase American-made equipment and products with funding provided under this award.

Increasing Seat Belt Use in the United States

Pursuant to EO 13043, Grantees should encourage employees and contractors to enforce on-the-job seat belt policies and programs when operating company-owned, rented or personally-owned vehicle.

Federal Employee Expenses

Federal agencies are generally barred from accepting funds from a Grantee to pay transportation, travel, or other expenses for any Federal employee unless specifically approved in the terms of the award. Use of award funds (Federal or non-Federal) or the Grantee's provision of in-kind goods or services, for the purposes of transportation, travel, or any other expenses for any Federal employee may raise appropriation augmentation issues. In addition, NRC policy prohibits the acceptance of gifts, including travel payments for Federal employees, from Grantees or applicants regardless of the source.

Minority Serving Institutions (MSIs) Initiative

Pursuant to EOs 13256, 13230, and 13270, NRC is strongly committed to broadening the participation of MSIs in its financial assistance program. NRC's goals include achieving full participation of MSIs in order to advance the development of human potential, strengthen the Nation's capacity to provide high-quality education, and increase opportunities for MSIs to participate in and benefit from Federal financial assistance programs. NRC encourages all applicants and Grantees to include meaningful participations of MSIs. Institutions eligible to be considered MSIs are listed on the Department of Education website: <http://www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/edlite-minorityinst.html>

Research Misconduct

Scientific or research misconduct refers to the fabrication, falsification, or plagiarism in proposing, performing, or reviewing research, or in reporting research results. It does not include honest errors or differences of opinions. The Grantee organization has the primary responsibility to investigate allegations and provide reports to the Federal Government. Funds expended on an activity that is determined to be invalid or unreliable because of scientific misconduct may result in a disallowance of costs for which the institution may be liable for repayment to the awarding agency. The Office of Science and Technology Policy at the White House published in the Federal Register on December 6, 2000, a final policy that addressed research misconduct. The policy was developed by the National Science and Technology Council (65 FR 76260). The NRC requires that any allegation be submitted to the Grants Officer, who will also notify the OIG of such allegation. Generally, the Grantee organization shall investigate the allegation and submit its findings to the Grants Officer. The NRC may accept the Grantee's findings or proceed with its own investigation. The Grants Officer shall inform the Grantee of the NRC's final determination.

Publications, Videos, and Acknowledgment of Sponsorship

Publication of the results or findings of a research project in appropriate professional journals and production of video or other media is encouraged as an important method of recording and reporting scientific information. It is also a constructive means to expand access to federally funded research. The Grantee is required to submit a copy to the NRC and when releasing information related to a funded project include a statement that the project or effort undertaken was or is sponsored by the NRC. The Grantee is also responsible for assuring that every publication of material (including Internet sites and videos) based on or developed under an award, except scientific articles or papers appearing in scientific, technical or professional journals, contains the following disclaimer:

"This [report/video] was prepared by [Grantee name] under award [number] from [name of operating unit], Nuclear Regulatory Commission. The statements, findings, conclusions, and recommendations are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the view of the [name of operating unit] or the US Nuclear Regulatory Commission."

2010 Trade School Scholarship Program
Service Agreement

1. This service agreement is required for all student recipients of scholarships (hereinafter referred to as the "recipient") funded by the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) through the _____ (name of institution).
2. This agreement confirms the recipient's obligations to maintain satisfactory academic progress and serve 6 months in nuclear-related employment for each full year of academic support. The employment may be with nuclear-related industry, State agencies, Department of Energy laboratories, the NRC or other Federal agencies, or academia in the recipients' sponsored fields of study.
3. The scholarship recipient must:
 - a. remain matriculated in the degree program for the field of study for which the scholarship was approved,
 - b. maintain satisfactory academic progress in the recipient's field of study, and
 - c. maintain a course load of at least 12 credit hours per semester as a full-time student in good standing.
4. If a recipient fails to maintain satisfactory academic progress, the scholarship will be terminated and the recipient could be obligated to repay the NRC the full amount of the scholarship/fellowship.
5. If a recipient receives any subsequent scholarship(s) through this program, the service obligation periods will be consecutive.
6. At the discretion of the NRC, the service obligation period may be delayed to allow the recipient to continue a subsequent degree program immediately following that sponsored under this program. For example, if a recipient receives a scholarship to earn a baccalaureate degree, he/she may request and be permitted to delay fulfilling their service obligation until after they complete a subsequent terminal degree program. Any such requests must be made to the NRC before a student enrolls in a subsequent degree program. If a student enrolls in a subsequent degree program before or without NRC approval, and the NRC does not subsequently approve the request, the NRC will not be held liable for any expenses incurred to dis-enroll, or for failure to otherwise meet the terms of this service obligation. Recipients only incur a service obligation to NRC for funded periods of study.
7. If the student receives no employment offers or does not accept any of the offers received, the student is not relieved of the service obligation, unless, pursuant to this service agreement, the student applies for and receives a waiver from the NRC. Implicit in the waiver request is data or explanation by the student that efforts to secure employment in a nuclear-related field were undertaken. This can be in the form of job searches, referrals, etc. Absent a waiver from the NRC, rejection of one or more job offers could trigger the service agreement obligation.
8. If a recipient voluntarily leaves the employment of an approved employer in a field related to nuclear power during the period of obligated post-academic service, the recipient may immediately become liable to the U.S. Government for repayment of the entire amount of the assistance provided under the scholarship for which the service obligation has not been fulfilled.
9. By accepting this scholarship/fellowship, I agree to provide the NRC with current contact information (address, telephone, email), and employment information, subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act, for as long as I remain under obligated service. This information will be used solely for the purposes of verifying appropriate nuclear related employment in compliance with the service obligation requirements of this service agreement. In accordance with the Privacy Act, providing this information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may result in removal from the scholarship/fellowship program and/or repayment of all scholarship/grant money received. Contact information should be reported to: eduscholar@nrc.gov.

10. By signing this agreement, the recipient certifies that he or she has read this agreement and agrees to all of the obligations it entails.
