CONSENT MOTION REGARDING PRIVILEGE LOGS

With the consent of all parties, Northern States Power Company, a Minnesota corporation (“NSPM”), on its own behalf and on behalf of the Prairie Island Indian Community (“PIIC”) and the NRC Staff (collectively, “the Parties”), hereby moves the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board (“Board”) to approve an agreement reached by the parties regarding the production of privilege logs for the mandatory disclosures in this proceeding. The Board’s May 13, 2010 Order Defining Scope of Disclosure requires that “[i]f a party seeks to withhold documents as privileged or otherwise protected, it must provide a privilege log, pursuant to 10 C.F.R. §§ 2.336(a)(3) and (b)(5).” May 13 Order, Section V.E at 9. The Parties have agreed to waive the requirement to include in the privilege logs those documents claimed to be covered by the attorney-client and attorney work product privileges. The Parties will still produce a log identifying documents claimed under privileges other than attorney-client and attorney work product.

Given the impending June 18, 2010 deadline for initial disclosures, the Parties respectfully request expeditious Board consideration and granting of this Motion.

Respectfully Submitted,
