Actually, they sent me a message asking a question. In my response, I asked them whether they were on schedule to submit their application by the end of September. They responded that they were on schedule. If you hear anything else, please let me know. My exchange was with Pat Gardner.

The previous Shield Alloy emails triggered this question - have you heard from NJ about their plans to send in their final application? I have not heard anything from them. If you haven't either, would you like to touch base with them next week? I don't mind calling if you're too busy. Let me know.

Thanks,
Donna
