I checked on schedules - we decided it wouldn't be fair to have it on 4/9 right after the briefing with Charlie - they won't have read the paper; 4/10 - everyone is out - you, Duncan Terry - I didn't go any higher - just a bad day.

The only other time was 4/14 at 1:00 - won't work for Front office - I left a message with Alison re: a couple of slots on 4/15 - we'll see.

Re: "the dabbling..." Rob said that is shieldalloy - NJ sent a letter to the chairman asking us to stop work apparently - that's why Rob wants this in the comm paper - Duncan and I/us still need to talk with Rob about this.

I'll keep you posted

I talked to Marty and he still does want the alignment because I guess in the past NJ has dabbled in things outside their purview and he wants to make sure those things have been resolved. He mentioned that we had a similar situation with Minnesota and we used our leverage. Hopefully, you all understand what some of the concerns are....Marty's calendar is pretty packed, but he has time tomorrow morning if you are ready, and as of now and I stress as of now....4/9 at 11:00 am, 4/14 at 1 pm or I might be able to get some time on Friday 4/10 after 10 am. Please give me your top 3 and who will be attending and I'll work with Liz to get it on the calendar. Thanks!

Okay, thanks. Marty said this morning that regardless of who signs it, he would like an alignment meeting before it comes up.
