Dear Jeffrey,

It was a pleasure to meet you last week in Custer, SD. I am attaching correspondence that was sent by NRC Staff to Oglala Sioux tribal officials and Elizabeth Lorina. Several telephone calls were made to Mrs. Theresa Two Bulls, Ms. Lorina, and Mr. Michael Catches Enemy and messages were left by Haimanot Yilma, beginning in the fall of 2009. Telephone calls were made to Mr. Wilber Mesteth, once he was identified as the Tribal Historic Preservation Officer.

The NRC Staff remains committed to receiving information the Oglala Sioux have concerning cultural resources at the Dewey-Burdock site and will continue to solicit such information.

I have asked Ms. Yilma to cc you and Ms. Grace Dugan on NHPA and NEPA correspondence to Oglala Sioux tribal officials.

Please advise Ms. Yilma once the Tribe appoints a new Tribal Historic Preservation Officer and a new Natural Resources Director, to ensure that these tribal officials receive all NRC correspondence.

With best wishes,

Patricia Jehle
