Stacey, he should have just received new login info by e-mail. If he's still having trouble, let me know and I'll follow up.

Loree,

Can you help me with a helpdesk number for certrec so that one of our technical reviewers can change his password to get into the STP reading room?

Thank you,

Stacy Joseph

Stacy:

I could not access the STP electronic reading room. I am getting following message when tried to login: "Your password has expired and cannot be changed on the Web site. You must change your password the next time you log on to Windows."

Can you please help me in getting access to the reading room.

Thank you,
Pravin
