Hello:

Thank-you Susan for sending this along.

Odd, the NEI Groundwater Protection initiative, which Pilgrim promised to follow, requires prompt notification to local and state officials of a leak of more than 100 gallons or a leak of unknown amount but likely to be more than 100 gallons (see page 7 of the NEI document.) And prompt is defined as by the end of the next business day.

Stay cool – understand that DC is brutal!

Mary
