Thanks Farideh.

Just in case anyone identifies any items that should be changed in the transcript, please note that when a change to the transcript is made, the original word should be kept, and the correction after it in brackets []. For more substantive changes, we would send the document back to be corrected by the court reporter.

Farideh, I'll provide you with my comments, if any, today.

I emailed this to you on Friday, but there was a peculiar message about updating the server - it appears it did not get to you because of that.
