2. Relevant Documents. All documents cited in, referenced, or relied upon in the submittals proffered by any party in this case, including all expert reports, publications, and any other materials. A portion of materials are available via the ADAMS website under Docket Number 04-00-9075 MLA. The remainder of such materials may be produced upon request to the extent not overly burdensome and not otherwise publicly available. In addition, relevant documents include the United States Geological Survey Black Hills Hydrology Study available at the following website: <http://sd.water.usgs.gov/projects/bhhs/Intro.html>.

3. Listing of Documents As To Which Privilege or Protection Claimed.
At this time, Intervenors are not aware of any documents in their possession, relevant to the contentions, that would otherwise be required to be disclosed for which a claim of privilege or protected status is being made.

4. Certification under 2.336(c). Pursuant to Section 2.336(c), the foregoing disclosures constitute all relevant materials required by such section to have been disclosed, and the disclosures are accurate and complete as of this date.

Dated this 13th day of September, 2010.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jeffrey C. Parsons
