Good Morning Dave,

I just heard your voicemail.

I will pass the word along to the staff about attire for the site visit and I understand that instead of boxed lunches, snacks and fruit will be available. Please be sure to let me know what the cost is for snacks so that I can pass that info along to the group.

Thanks

Janelle

Janelle – Just a reminder for the NRC folks participating in the site visit on 10/18, we recommend that people wear blue jeans, sturdy work boots or hiking boots, and a hat or cap for sun protection.

Also, I had mentioned that we would try to have boxed lunches available. However, due to the logistics of trying to get lunches delivered to the hotel early in the morning and getting ice to pack them in, we decided that rather than boxed lunches we will have non-perishable snacks and fruit available, along with bottled water. This is more workable and the cost should only be a couple of dollars each.

Thanks.

Dave Distel
