RE: 24-26445-01

Subject: Change of Leadership Notification

Dear Sir:

The EMD Millipore radioactive materials license contact Rick Ryan is retiring. His replacement effective December 31, 2010 is Christina Shasserre, Head of Discovery and Development Solutions - Biosciences - EMD Millipore. This request does not change any of the corporate ownership holdings or result in any changes in the facility or operational procedures. Christina Shasserre should be identified and recognized as the official signatory and management representative for the license. The current RSO remains the same along with the RSO delegation authority to submit request for license amendments.

The official address, RSO and authorized uses and Users remain the same as published on the current amendment. For questions concerning the request you can contact Jim Hatten RSO at (815) 370-6538. Thank you in advance for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

James Hatten
Radiation Safety Officer
For EMD Millipore
