Name of Licensee: Dept. of the Army/Womack Army Medical CenterName of Participant(s): Captain Ioulia Melomed, RSO

Documents Title in ADAMS)

I called Captain Melomed to clarify where the sealed sources that she requested to be removed from the license ultimately went. She had said that Womack's sources, as well as sealed sources from another Army facility in Fort Bragg, had been picked up by Hidden Water. I did clarify that the other facility in Fort Bragg that had sources removed was operating under the Dept. of the Army, US Army TACOM, Warren, MI (License 21-01222-05) and Dept. of the Army TACOM Life Cycle Management Command, Rock Island, IL (License 12-00722-06). Captain Melomed had sent me copies of two different waste manifests so I asked her how she knew where her sources went. She said that Brad Squabb, the RSO for Hidden Water, had told her that all of Womack's sources were sent to Environmental Management and Controls (EMC) in Turlock, California. I asked that Captain Melomed provide me with a copy of EMC's radioactive material license. I also asked her to find out what was ultimately done with the sources (i.e. confirm if EMC still had the sources on hand, or if they sent them out to another facility for final disposal). She did find out that the sources had been transferred from EMC to Energy Solutions, LLC out of Clive, UT for final disposal. Energy Solutions is appropriately licensed for source disposal. Captain Melomed would send me the final disposition records.
