

Sealed Source and Device Workshop

Objectives

- Become familiar with the components that go into a safety evaluation for a device or source
- Learn what Sealed Source and Device (SS&D) reviewer should look for in an application
- Understand what information should go into and why it should go into an SS&D Registration Certificate
- Practical experience in performing a review
- Provide a good basis to help you on your way to obtaining your signature authority for SS&D reviews