The licensee's renewal application was signed by the RSO. I called the licensee to remind it that NRC policy requires all correspondence related to a license be signed by a member of the licensee's management rather than the RSO or a consultant.

I talked to Mr. Quill, who stated that the RSO is also the manager of laboratory, and that he (James Quill) is the Principal of the company and he concurs with the contents of the application and offered to send a letter confirming his concurrence with the contents of the application. I thanked him and told him that it was not necessary and that I will document this conversation.
