Thanks Dennis

I apologize for our delay but we had the wrong pass code, per what we were sent – see below:

Dara,

I got you message: I understand that Entergy will need just one conference line for Monday.

In case I had not sent this information earlier, the call-in number is 1-800-369-1905 and the pass code is 11987.

Dennis

As of now, no counsel: Right now, Andy and I would participate from here. At last check, just Julie from NMFS.

Perhaps I might ask another biologist to be present just to take notes, but for now, I was thinking I would do that.

Dara,

The information for the conference call notice is just as we discussed. I have no additional information, and the notice should be processed today for publishing.
