Dear Mr. Moseley:

This is in response to your October 31, 1973, letter RO:II:JKR 50-438/73-1, 50-439/73-1 (999-42), which transmitted for our review a DRO Inspection Report (same number). We have reviewed that report and do not consider any part of it to be proprietary. We do note, however, that on page 2 the following appears:

The inspector identified no compliances relative to the requirements of ASME Code or 10 CFR 50, Appendix G, "Notch Toughness."

We assume that the word "compliances" should have been "noncompliances."

Very truly yours,

J. E. Gilleland
Assistant to the Manager of Power
