

UNITED STATES
NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20555

I 89-76-06

March 22, 1990

Margaret A. Willis
FAR Secretariat
General Services Administration
Office of Acquisition Policy
Washington, DC 20405

Dear Ms. Willis:

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on the following FAR Cases listed below:

- FAR 89-88, Allowability of Value Engineering Costs
- FAR 89-89, Debarment, Suspension, and Ineligibility
- FAR 89-38, Submission and Disposition of Agency Protests
- FAR 89-90, Foreign Selling Costs
- FAR 89-87, Thresholds Part 19
- FAR 89-83, Streamlining Use of Options on the Indefinite Quantity and Quantity and Requirements Contracts
- FAR 88-64, Safety and Occupational Health Provisions
- FAR 89-94, Thresholds, Part 42
- FAR 90-06, Bankruptcy
- ✓ FAC 84-55, Anti-Lobbying, (FAR Case 89-93)
- ✓ FAC 84-56, Items I (FAR Case 89-76), Misrepresentation-False Statements, II (FAR Case 89-75), Walsh, Healey and Miller Act Bonding, and III (FAR Case 89-74), Transfer of 8(a) Contracts
- FAR 90-07, Thresholds, Part 49
- FAR 90-09, Thresholds, Part 44

A/1

MAR 26 1990

I 89-76-06

Margret Willis, GSA

- 2 -

March 22, 1990

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission does not have comments on any of the above proposed rules.

Mary Lynn Scott

Mary Lynn Scott, Acting Chief
Operations Support Staff
Division of Contracts and Property Management
Office of Administration

MAR 26 1990