Tekia – Thanks. We need to continue to get the electronic distribution the same day the letter is issued, since this starts our response time clock. This has been the standard practice previously, based on discussion with Mark Tonnaci. The WORD files can follow as they are used to facilitate development of the formal response letter.

Thanks.

David:

Letter #10 can be found under ML111430742. And although I informed you on Friday that the formal letter would be issued on Monday, the letter was issued yesterday (Tuesday). Draft RAIs were provided 5/6 (almost 2 weeks in Exelon's possession).

In the future, I will have the secretary put you on electronic distribution the day the letter goes out. The courtesy WORD file will be sent to you as time permits.

Tekia
