IN RESPONSE REFER TO
FOIA/PA-2011-0016A
(FOIA/PA-2011-0274)

Dear Mr. Ravnitzky:

On behalf of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC), I am responding to your letter dated July 5, 2011, in which you appealed the agency's June 29, 2011, decision related to your June 25, 2011, Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Act (FOIA/PA) request (FOIA/PA-2011-0274). You appealed the adequacy of the NRC's search for guidance documents that provide instructions on how to respond to requests for records on the subject of unidentified flying objects.

Acting on your appeal, we searched again and located no records. Therefore, your appeal is denied.

This is the NRC's final decision. As set forth in the FOIA (5 U.S.C. 552(a)(4)(B)), you may seek judicial review of this decision in a district court of the United States in the district in which you reside or have your principal place of business. You may also seek judicial review in the District of Columbia or the district in which the agency's records are situated.

As part of the 2007 FOIA amendments, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a nonexclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. If you are requesting access to your own records (which is considered a Privacy Act request), you should know that OGIS does not have the authority to handle requests made under the Privacy Act of 1974. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways:
