PART II.A APPLICABLE EXEMPTIONS
Records subject to the request that are described in the enclosed Appendices are being withheld in their entirety or in part under the Exemption No.(s) of the PA and/or the FOIA as indicated below (5 U.S.C. 552a and/or 5 U.S.C. 552(b)).
Exemption 1: The withheld information is properly classified pursuant to Executive Order 12958.
	Exemption 2: The withheld information relates solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of NRC.
	Exemption 3: The withheld information is specifically exempted from public disclosure by statute indicated.
	Sections 141-145 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Restricted Data or Formerly Restricted Data (42 U.S.C. 2161-2165).
}	Section 147 of th	e Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosur	e of Unclassified Safeguards In	formation (42 U.S	.C. 2167).
	41 U.S.C., Section 253b, subsection (m)(1), prohibits the disclosure of contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executive agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency and the submitter of the proposal.
	Exemption 4: The with	hheld information is a trade secret or commercial o	r financial information that is be	ing withheld for th	e reason(s) indicated.
]	The information is considered to be confidential business (proprietary) information.
	The information is considered to be proprietary because it concerns a licensee's or applicant's physical protection or material control and accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(1).
1	The information was submitted by a foreign source and received in confidence pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(2).
	Disclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest.
		nheld information consists of interagency or intraag ble privileges:	gency records that are not availa	able through disco	overy during litigation.
Deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to the deliberative process. Where records are withheld in their entirety, the facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional information. There also are no reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency.
	Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation)
	Attorney-client pr	rivilege. (Confidential communications between an	attorney and his/her client)
	Exemption 6: The with	hheld information is exempted from public disclosu	re because its disclosure would	result in a clearly	unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated.
(A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement efforts, and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of NRC requirements from investigators).
i	(C) Disclosure cou	ald constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal	•
