NRC FORM 464 Part I (J) U.S. NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSIO
(8-2011) U.S. NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSIO		RESPONSE NUMBER
	2011-0189	31
RESPONSE TO FREEDOM OF		I
INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) / PRIVACY
ACT (PA) REQUEST	TYPE FINAL
	DUTE
REQUESTER Geoffrey H. Fettus/Jonathan McLaughlin	DATE OCT 0 7	2011
PART I INFORMATION RELEAS	ED
No additional agency records subject to the request have been located.
Requested records are available through another public distribution program. See Comments section.
APPENDICES Agency records subject to the request that are identified in the listed appendices are already available for public inspection and copying at the NRC Public Document Room.
APPENDICES Agency records subject to the request that are identified in the listed appendices are being made available for public inspection and copying at the NRC Public Document Room.
Enclosed is information on how you may obtain access to and the charges for copying records located at the NRC Public Document Room, 11555 Rockville Pike, Rockville, MD 20852-2738.
APPENDICES Agency records subject to the request are enclosed.
Records subject to the request that contain information originated by or of interest to another Federal agency have been referred to that agency (see comments section) for a disclosure determination and direct response to you.
We are continuing to process your request.
See Comments.
AMOUNT * You will be billed by NRC for the amount listed.	None. Minimum fee thresho	d not mot bia not met.
 You will receive a refund for the amount listed. See comments 	Fees waived.
for details
PART I.B INFORMATION NOT LOCATED OR WITHHE	LD FROM DISCLOSURE
No agency records subject to the request have been located.
Certain information in the requested records is being withheld from disclosure pursuant to the exemptions described in and for the reasons stated in Part II.
This determination may be appealed within 30 days by writing to the FOIA/PA Officer, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555-0001. Clearly state on the envelope and in the letter that it is a "FOIA/PA Appeal."
PART I.C COMMENTS (Use attached Comments continuation page if required) Group FF records relating to your request are being made publicly available in the "NRC Library" at http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/foia/japan-foia-info.html.
As the NRC makes records publicly available, you will be notified in writing.
SIGNATURE - FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT AND PRIVACY ACT OFFICER FOR JAPAN - RELATED FOIAS.
	Mary Jean Raphael
Iviary Jean ryphaet - Fr und

.

• · ·

RESPONSE TO FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) / PRIVACY ACT (PA) REQUEST 2011-0189 PART ILA - APPLICABLE EXEMPTIONS PARTILA - APPLICABLE EXEMPTIONS PREVENTIES Records subject to the request that are described in the enclosed Appendices are being withheld in their entirety or in part under Exemption 0.16 of the PA and inclused boliow (PA SC. 5558 and/OF US C. 5552.01). Exemption 1: The withheld information relates solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of NRC. Discions 141-145 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Restricted Data or Formery Restricted Data (42 U.S. C. Sections 141-145 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of unclassified Safeguards information (42 U.S. C. 167). 14 U.S. C. Section 525. subsection (m(r)), prohibits the disclosure of curractor proposals in the possession and control of a executil agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency in the submitter of the proposal. Disclosure with and information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information the contract between the agency in the information is considered to be proprietary because (cronomercial or financial information to 0 CFR 2.390(d)(2). Disclosure with harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. Evemption 5: The withheld information or production on material control ar accounting program for special nuclear material pursuent to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(2). Disclosure with arm an identifiable private or governmental interest. Evemption 6: T	NRC FORM 464 Part II	U.S. NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION	FOIA/PA	DATE
Improvements Records subject to the request that are described in the enclosed Appendices are being withheld in their entirety or in part under Exemption 0. (s) of the PA and/or the FO/A as indicated bolive (VS C. 555 and/or 0.5 C. 555 200). Exemption 1: The withheld information relates solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of NRC.	RESPONSE TO F		2011-0189	TOCT 0 7 2011
FF Products subject to the request rule are deprived in the endoces Appendices are telling withinked information is properly classified parsuant to Executive Order 12858. Exemption 1: The withheld information relates solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of NRC. Exemption 3: The withheld information is specifically exempted from public disclosure by statule indicated. Section 147 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executive apency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency is the information is considered to be proprietary because (troperlary) hocus to contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executive apency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency is the information is considered to be confidential business (proprietary) information. The information is considered to be proprietary because (troperlary) information. The information is considered to be proprietary because (troperlary) information. The information is considered to be proprietary because (troperlary) information. The information is approtenty because (troperlary) information and trave exchange of Heas essential to the distortion of information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information or ateral control ar accounting program for special	PART ILA APPLICABLE EXEMPTIONS
Exemption 2: The withheld information relates solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of NRC. Exemption 3: The withheld information is specifically exempted from public disclosure by statute indicated. Sections 141-145 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Restricted Data or Formerly Restricted Data (42 U.S.C. 2161-2363). Sections 141-145 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Unclassified Safeguards Information (42 U.S.C. 2167). 41 U.S.C., Section 253b, subsection (m)(1), prohibits the disclosure of Contractor proposatis in the possession and control of an executia agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency is the submitter of the proposat. Exemption 4: The withheld information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information that is being withheld for the reason(s) indica accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(2). Disclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency or intragency records that are not available through discovery during Illigati Applicable privates. Where records are withheld information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to 11 additarative process: Disclosure of predecisional information mould tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to 11 additarative process. Unclosure on predecisional process of the agency. Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation) Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared	APPENDICES FF Exemption No.(s) of the PA and/or the FOIA as indicated below (5 U.S.C. 552a and/or 5 U.S.C. 552(b)).
Exemption 3: The withheld information is specifically exempted from public disclosure by statute indicated. Sections 141-145 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Restricted Data or Formerty Restricted Data (42 U.S.C. 2161-2165). Section 147 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Unclassified Safeguards Information (42 U.S.C. 2167). 41 U.S.C., Section 253b, subsection (m)(1), prohibits the disclosure of contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executi agency to any person under section 552 of Till 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency is the submitter of the proposal. Exemption 4: The withheld information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information that is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. The Information is considered to be confidential business (proprietary) information. The Information as submitted by a foreign source and received in confidence pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(2). Disclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency or intraagency records that are not available through discovery during ligitati Applicable privates. Where records are withheld in their entirety, the facts are instructionally interwined with the predecisional information information reasonally segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process. The evence of available directory process of the agency. Attorney-duent privilege. (Confidential communications between an atomey and his/her client) Exemption 6: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement procees and is being withheld for the reason(s) information information re	Exemption 1: The withheld information is properly classified pursuant to Executive Order 12958.
Sediums 141-145 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Restricted Data or Formerly Restricted Data (42 U.S.C. 2161). Sedium 147 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Unclassified Safeguards Information (42 U.S.C. 2167). 41 U.S.C., Section 253b, subsection (m)(1), prohibits the disclosure of contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executiva agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency it the submitter of the proposal. Exemption 4: The withheld information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information that is being withheld for the reason(s) indica The information is considered to be proprietary because it concerns a licenset's or applicant's physical protection or material control at accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(2). Disclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency records that are not available through discovery during litigatin Applicative process: Obstochuse and received in the facts are intervicably intertivably intervicably int	Exemption 2: The withheld information relates solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of NRC.
2161-2165, Section 147 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Unclassified Safeguards Information (42 U.S.C. 2167). 41 U.S.C., Section 253b, subsection (m)(1), prohibits the disclosure of contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executi agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency is the submitter of the proposal. Exemption 4: The withheld information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information that is being withheld for the reason(s) indica accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(1). The information is considered to be proprietary because it concerves or applicant's physical protection or material control ar accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(2). Disclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency or intraagency records that are not available through discovery during litigatin Applicative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to 11 deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional profons because the relaxes of the facts would permit an interct inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency. Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney in contemplation of itigation) Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney and his/her client) Exemption 6: The withheld information is exempted from public disclosure because its disclosure would result in a clearly unwaranted invasion of personal privacy.	Exemption 3: The withheld information is specifically exempted from public disclosure by statute indicated.
41 U.S.C., Section 253b, subsection (m)(1), prohibits the disclosure of contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executi agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency is the submitter of the proposal. Exemption 4: The withheld information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information that is being withheld for the reason(s) indica The information is considered to be proprietary because it concerns a licensee's or applicant's physical protection or material control at accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.380(d)(2). Disclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency or intraagency records that are not available through discovery during litigati Applicable privileges: Deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to the deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to the deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency. Attorney-client privilege. (Confidential communications between an attorney and his/her client) Exemption 6: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. (A) Disclosure could residuated communications between an attorney and his/her client) Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records com agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency is the submitter of the proposal. Exemption 4: The withheld information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information that is being withheld for the reason(s) indica The information is considered to be proprietary because it concerns a licensee's or applicant's physical protection or material control ar accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(1). The information was submitted by a foreign source and received in confidence pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(2). Diaclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency records that are not available through discovery during litigati Applicable privileges: Diaclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency records that are not available through discovery during litigati Applicable privileges: Diaclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency records that are not available through discovery during litigati The re also are on reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process. Matteries work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney and his/her client) Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated.	Section 147 of the	e Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure	e of Unclassified Safeguards In	formation (42 U.S.C. 2167).
☐ The information is considered to be confidential business (proprietary) information. ☐ The information is considered to be proprietary because it concerns a licensee's or applicant's physical protection or material control ar accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2390(d)(1). ☐ The information is considered to be proprietary because it concerns a licensee's or applicant's physical protection or material control ar accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2390(d)(2). ☐ Disclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency or intraagency records that are not available through discovery during litigati Applicable privileges: ☐ Deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to the predecisional process. Where records are withheld in their entrety. the facts are inextricably interwined with the predecisional information formation because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process. ☐ Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation) ☐ Attorney work-product privilege. (Confidential communications between an attorney and his/her client) [Exemption 6: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. [(A) Disclosure co	41 U.S.C., Section 253b, subsection (m)(1), prohibits the disclosure of contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executive agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency and the submitter of the proposal.
☐ The information is considered to be proprietary because it concerns a licensee's or applicant's physical protection or material control ar accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(1). ☐ The information was submitted by a foreign source and received in confidence pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(2). ☐ Disclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. ☐ Deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to th deliberative process. Where records are withheld in their entirely. The facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional information the predecisional process of the agency. ☐ Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation) ☐ Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney and his/her client) ☑ Exemption 6: The withheld information is exempted from public disclosure because its disclosure would result in a clearly unwarranted from a focus of privacy. ☐ Attorney could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. [] (A) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (C) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. [] (D) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (D) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. </td <td colspan="6">Exemption 4: The withheld information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information that is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated.</td>	Exemption 4: The withheld information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information that is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated.
□ Disclosure will harm an identifiable private or governmental interest. □ Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency or intraagency records that are not available through discovery during litigatili Applicable privileges: □ Deliberative process: Obsclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to the deliberative process: Where records are withheld in their entirety, the facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional information there expresses to be are no reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency. □ Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation) □ Attorney-client privilege. (Confidential communications between an attorney and his/her client) ✓ Exemption 6: The withheld information is exempted from public disclosure because its disclosure would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. □ Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. (A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement form investigators). (C) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (D) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.	accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(1).
Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency or intraagency records that are not available through discovery during illigatii Applicable privileges: Deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to ti deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to ti deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional process of the facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional informatio There also are no reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency. Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation) Attorney-client privilege. (Confidential communications between an attorney and his/her client) Exemption 6: The withheld information is exempted from public disclosure because its disclosure would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. (A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement efforts, and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of N requirements from investigators). (C) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or guidelines that could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or guidelines that could requirements from investigators). (C) Disclosure could reasonably the expected to investing of ficial scidentific below as denying officials is contribute Applicable privileges: Applicable privileges: Deliberative process. Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to the deliberative process. Where records are withheld in their entirely, the facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional information. There also are no reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency. Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation) Attorney voirk-product privilege. (Confidential communications between an attorney and his/her client) Exemption 6: The withheld information is exempted from public disclosure because its disclosure would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. (A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement forts), and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of N requirements from investigators). (C) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (D) The information consists of names of individuals and other information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to rever identities ources. (B) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (D) The information deliberative process. Where records are withheld in their entirety, the facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional informatic There also are no reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency. Attorney work-product privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation) Attorney-client privilege. (Confidential communications between an attorney and his/her client) Exemption 6: The withheld information is exempted from public disclosure because its disclosure would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. (A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement efforts, and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of the requirements from investigators). (C) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (D) The information consists of names of individuals and other information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to reve identifies of confidential sources. (E) Disclosure would reveal techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or guidelines that could reasonably be expected to reve identifies of confidential sources. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual	Applicable privileges:
Attorney-client privilege. (Confidential communications between an attorney and his/her client) Exemption 6: The withheld information is exempted from public disclosure because its disclosure would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. (A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement efforts, and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of N requirements from investigators). (C) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (D) The information consists of names of individuals and other information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to reve identities of confidential sources. (E) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to reve information or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interfeet. (F) Disclosure could areasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. (F) Disclosure could endanger th	deliberative process. Where records are withheld in their entirety, the facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional information. There also are no reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the Exemption 6: The withheld information is exempted from public disclosure because its disclosure would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. (A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement efforts, and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of N requirements from investigators). (C) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (D) The information consists of names of individuals and other information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to reveal techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or guidelines that could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. (F) Disclosure would reveal techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or guidelines that could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. OTHER (Specify) PART II.B DENYING OFFICIALS Pursuant to 10 CFR 9.25(g), 9.25(h), and/or 9.65(b) of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations, it has been determine that the information withheld is exempt from production or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interest. The person respon	Attorney work-pro	duct privilege. (Documents prepared by an attorr	ney in contemplation of litigation)
Invasion of personal privacy. Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. (A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement efforts, and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of N requirements from investigators). (C) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (D) The information consists of names of individuals and other information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to reve identities of confidential sources. (E) Disclosure could reveal techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or guidelines that could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. OTHER (Specify) PART II.B - DENYING OFFICIALS Pursuant to 10 CFR 9.25(g), 9.25(h), and/or 9.65(b) of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations, it has been determine that the information withheld is exempt from production or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interest. The person responsible for the denial are those officials identified below as denying officials and the FOIA/PA Officer for denials that may be appealed to the Executive Director for Operations (EDO). DENYING OFFICIAL TITLE/OFFICE <t< td=""><td colspan="6">Attorney-client privilege. (Confidential communications between an attorney and his/her client)</td></t<>	Attorney-client privilege. (Confidential communications between an attorney and his/her client)
A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement efforts, and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of N requirements from investigators). C) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. D) The information consists of names of individuals and other information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to reve identifies of confidential sources. E) Disclosure would reveal techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or guidelines that could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. OTHER (Specify) PART II.B DENYING OFFICIALS Pursuant to 10 CFR 9.25(g), 9.25(h), and/or 9.65(b) of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations, it has been determine that the information withheld is exempt from production or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interest. The person responsible for the denial are those officials identified below as denying officials and the FOIA/PA Officer for denials that may be appealed to the Executive Director for Operations (EDO). DENYING OFFICIAL TITLE/OFFICE RECORDS DENIED APPELLATE OFFIC	Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s)
(D) The information consists of names of individuals and other information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to reveridentities of confidential sources. (E) Disclosure would reveal techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or guidelines that could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. OTHER (Specify) PART II.B DENYING OFFICIALS Pursuant to 10 CFR 9.25(g), 9.25(h), and/or 9.65(b) of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations, it has been determine interest. The person responsible for the denial are those officials identified below as denying officials and the FOIA/PA Officer for denials that may be appealed to the Executive Director for Operations (EDO). DENYING OFFICIAL TITLE/OFFICE RECORDS DENIED APPELLATE OFFIC	(A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement efforts, and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of NRC requirements from investigators).
(E) Disclosure would reveal techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or guidelines that could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. (F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. OTHER (Specify) PART II.B DENYING OFFICIALS Pursuant to 10 CFR 9.25(g), 9.25(h), and/or 9.65(b) of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations, it has been determine that the information withheld is exempt from production or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interest. The person responsible for the denial are those officials identified below as denying officials and the FOIA/PA Officer for denials that may be appealed to the Executive Director for Operations (EDO). DENYING OFFICIAL TITLE/OFFICE RECORDS DENIED APPELLATE OFFIC	(D) The information consists of names of individuals and other information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to reveal
(F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual. OTHER (Specify) PART II.B DENYING OFFICIALS Pursuant to 10 CFR 9.25(g), 9.25(h), and/or 9.65(b) of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations, it has been determine that the information withheld is exempt from production or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interest. The person responsible for the denial are those officials identified below as denying officials and the FOIA/PA Officer for denials that may be appealed to the Executive Director for Operations (EDO). DENYING OFFICIAL TITLE/OFFICE RECORDS DENIED APPELLATE OFFIC	(E) Disclosure would reveal techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or guidelines that could
PART II.B DENYING OFFICIALS Pursuant to 10 CFR 9.25(g), 9.25(h), and/or 9.65(b) of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations, it has been determine that the information withheld is exempt from production or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interest. The person responsible for the denial are those officials identified below as denying officials and the FOIA/PA Officer for denials that may be appealed to the Executive Director for Operations (EDO). DENYING OFFICIAL TITLE/OFFICE RECORDS DENIED APPELLATE OFFIC EDO
Pursuant to 10 CFR 9.25(g), 9.25(h), and/or 9.65(b) of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations, it has been determined that the information withheld is exempt from production or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interest. The person responsible for the denial are those officials identified below as denying officials and the FOIA/PA Officer for denials that may be appealed to the Executive Director for Operations (EDO). DENYING OFFICIAL TITLE/OFFICE RECORDS DENIED APPELLATE OFFIC	OTHER (Specify)
Pursuant to 10 CFR 9.25(g), 9.25(h), and/or 9.65(b) of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations, it has been determined that the information withheld is exempt from production or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interest. The person responsible for the denial are those officials identified below as denying officials and the FOIA/PA Officer for denials that may be appealed to the Executive Director for Operations (EDO). DENYING OFFICIAL TITLE/OFFICE RECORDS DENIED APPELLATE OFFIC that the information withheld is exempt from production or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interest. The person responsible for the denial are those officials identified below as denying officials and the FOIA/PA Officer for denials that may be appealed to the Executive Director for Operations (EDO). DENYING OFFICIAL TITLE/OFFICE RECORDS DENIED APPELLATE OFFIC	PART II.B DENYING OFFICIALS
DENTING OFFICIAL TITLE/OFFICE RECORDS DENIED EDO SECY	Pursuant to 10 CFR 9.25(g), 9.25(h), and/or 9.65(b) of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations, it has been determined that the information withheld is exempt from production or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interest. The person responsible for the denial are those officials identified below as denying officials and the FOIA/PA Officer for any
	DENYING OFFICIAL	TITLE/OFFICE	RECORDS	DENIED APPELLATE OFFICIAL EDO SECY IG
	Mary Jean Raphael	FOIA/PA Officer for Japan-Related FOIA	s Appendix FF
	,
Appeal must be made in writing within 30 days of receipt of this response. Appeals should be mailed to the FOIA/Privacy Act Offic U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555-0001, for action by the appropriate appellate official(s). You should clearly state on the envelope and letter that it is a "FOIA/PA Appeal."

•

NRC FORM 464 Part II (4-2011)

. . . .

•- • • • •••