Subject: 2011-10-23 Woodlan, Hydrology Conference Call

We discussed having the Hydrology conference call on Wednesday, October 26, 2011, in the morning. Luminant and the NRC staff agreed to check the availability of the needed personnel.

Luminant has confirmed that the subject matter experts are available Wednesday morning. If the NRC staff personnel are available, I suggest that we start early as this may be a long call (I suggest at least 9am EDT).

Please let me know if the NRC can support the call and the start time for the call.
