John,

Here's the response I received from the superintendent of Devils Tower N.M.

Mr. Bjornsen,

Yes, they are part of the cultural/spiritual landscape of the Tower and its surrounding area.

Good Morning, Dorothy.

Just one more thing - do the Missouri Buttes, northwest of Devils Tower, have any cultural significance to Native American Tribes? Thank you.

Sorry, it stands for Devils Tower - in the National Park Service, all the parks have a four letter acronym, which is either the first four letters of a single word named park or the first two letters of a multiple word named park.

Ms. FireCloud,

Thank you for your response with the list of Tribes. But, can you tell me what DETO stands for? Thank you.

Alan

Mr. Bjornsen,

Attached is our consultation listing - please let me know if you need any additional assistance.

(See attached file: Affiliated DETO Tribes 2010.doc)

I know that both the Three Affiliated Tribes of North Dakota and the Oglala Lakota tribe have elected new Chairpersons, however, I do not believe that they will be in office until after the first of the year. Tex Hall, is the new Chairman at Three Affiliated, and John Steele, is returning as the President at Oglala Lakota.

Dear Dorothy Firecloud, The USNRC expects to receive an application for an in situ uranium recovery facility in Oshoto next month. Do you have a list of Native American Tribes that have an interest in Devils Tower that that NRC would begin consultation for this project? Thank you.
