I'm not sure what this has anything to do with what I asked: clarification of lateral load resisting system. In fact, I don't even remember if this revised response is on the pain.

Tom,

Attached is the draft revision to RAI 03.07.02-32 on Seismic II/I. The COLA mark-up included here, specifically for Sections 3.7.2.8 and 3.7.3.16 (portion highlighted by revision bar) provides the clarification requested in the last telecon on this subject. We will be prepared to discuss this at our afternoon call tomorrow. Regards,

John E. Price

John,

In the October 19 telecon, S&L agreed to provide an advanced copy of the definition of "lateral load resisting system" for our discussion in tomorrow's telephone conference. Is this available?
