Hi Melissa,

“Advised Alan?” No. I requested another date when he hastily re-scheduled. He never got back to me one on one. He just resent the same email to all the tribes. Actually when all of us Lakota/Dakota tribes met this week here in North Dakota we brought up how Alan is completely ignoring the tribes. Frankly we like that you and Mike are actually making the effort.

Thank you,

Wast'e Win –

Thank you for keeping us in the loop. Have you advised Alan? As you and I discussed yesterday, any official Section 106 consultation must be scheduled and attended by NRC.

We understand that site significance may vary among the tribes, and we share your desire to ensure that all consultation is conducted in good faith. We look forward to meeting with you in the very near future.

Best regards,

Hi Melissa,

Just a heads up that I just received emails from Jim from Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate, Wanda Wells from Crow Creek, Conrad Fisher From Northern Cheyenne. Besides us we would like to have an alternative meeting because we committed to the Nov 3rd date with TVA.

I know you have a number of tribes that are committed we just want to ensure that from the Lakota/Dakota tribes we have good faith consultation. Other tribes cannot speak on our behalf and their site significance may differ from ours.

I know you are trying to balance this issue out. I appreciate the work that you are doing on Alan's behalf.

Thank You,
