Hi Alan

Currently, only one tribe has requested consultancy fees. The Northern Arapahoe Tribe, D. Conrad, corresponded late last week with an additional request to define their "consultancy fee request" of 300 per person. I have responded that Strata is only paying for travel expenses.

I am attaching our reimbursement policy and procedures for your information. I will let everyone know if we see more such requests. Please let me know if you need more information.

Regards,

Good morning, Ben. Trust your weekend was enjoyable and restful. Are the tribes requesting a fee in addition to travel expenses? Or, is the $300 per day what Strata has set as a limit that will be given each tribal representative. Has Strata set a limit on the number of representatives for each tribe?

Melanie,

I spoke with you on the phone and the email you sent does not address the consultation fee of $300 per day per person. Can you find out about this for me?
