Controlled Unclassified Information

On February 29, 2012, staff from the Information and Records Services Division attended a working group meeting at the Controlled Unclassified Information Office (CUIO), National Archives and Records Administration. The purpose of the meeting was for the CUIO to kick off its reinvigorated working group approach to developing CUI policy after a several month hiatus caused by the CUIO's having to review agencies' compliance plans. The CUIO will again have regular working group meetings to gather input from agencies in order to develop policies for safeguarding, dissemination, marking, decontrol, and other miscellaneous CUI issues. The next meeting will begin with a discussion of what safeguarding issues the policy should address and development of the specific criteria.
