RE: Final Disposition of the ChemPro100 serial number "Proto-008"

This letter is to recognize the transfer of ownership of the Environics product ChemPro100, serial number "Proto-008" owned by MRI Global to Environics USA, Inc a subsidiary of Environics International, the manufacturer of the device. This transfer of the unit possession is for its appropriate disposal and is permanent.

The Detector has been received by Environics USA and on this date has been stripped of its contained sealed source module which has been tracked back in to Environics USA's records. The Sealed Source from this device "A-304" is now being held for transfer to Environics OY for ultimate disposal of the source material.
