SUBJECT: INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ENGINEERING ALUMNI
ADVISORY BOARD AT PENN STATE HAZLETON

The Pennsylvania State University, Hazleton Campus, has extended an invitation to participate on the Engineering Alumni Advisory Board. The majority of this work will center on the first Engineering Baccalaureate Program offered at Hazleton, which focuses on alternate energy and power generation. I am requesting your authorization to engage in this outside activity during after-duty hours. I am providing the following information:

1. NAME AND TITLE OF EMPLOYEE:

Alan Blamey,
Chief, Construction Projects Branch 2
Division of Construction Projects

2. SUMMARY OF EMPLOYEE'S DUTIES:

Mr. Blamey currently has responsibility for infrastructure development in the Center for Construction Inspection. In April 2012 Mr. Blamey is transferring to the Division of Fuel Facility Inspection where he will have oversight responsibility for several fuel fabrication facilities.

3. DESCRIPTION OF OUTSIDE ACTIVITY:

Mr. Blamey will meet with the board twice per year. Mr. Blamey will periodically review curriculum, provide an industry perspective and insights into the regulatory environment, engage in dialogue with faculty and make recommendations related to program materials and equipment.

CONTACT: Alan Blamey, DCP/CPB2
404-997-4415

4. NAME OF COMPENSATING INSTITUTION:

Penn State Hazleton
76 University Drive
Hazleton, Pa 18202-8025

5. AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION:

There is no compensation for this position.

I will do the preparation for and attend the advisory board meetings on my own time. I will not use Government time or resources or any information that I gained as a Federal employee that is not available to the public. Furthermore, I will not participate in Nuclear Regulatory Commission matters that could have a direct and predictable effect upon the financial interests of the Pennsylvania Status University.
