Thanks for the clarification. I have no comments at this time on the EA and FONSI.

Yes, the Rancho Seco's ISFSI is already approved. They are asking for an exemption (in conjunction with a conforming amendment).

Thanks,

Could you please send the draft EA electronically? Is Ranch Seco's ISFSI a mode/design that has already been approved? Thanks!

Steve,

Per our conversation on Tuesday, September 28, 2004, attached is NRC's DRAFT EA for the Proposed Exemption regarding the Rancho Seco Independent Spent Fuel Storage Installation (ISFSI). Please review and comment. As reflected in the draft, we will include your comments in the EA. I hope you are still able to provide us with a quick turn-around on this (a few days from when you are back in the office).

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at (301) 415-8580.

Sincerely,
