A.12 COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 508 OF THE REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973, AS AMENDED

In 1998, Congress amended the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. 794d) as amended by the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (P.L. 105 - 220), August 7, 1998 to require Federal agencies to make their electronic and information technology (EIT) accessible to people with disabilities. Inaccessible technology interferes with an ability to obtain and use information quickly and easily. Section 508 was enacted to eliminate barriers in information technology, open new opportunities for people with disabilities, and encourage development of technologies that will help achieve these goals. The law applies to all Federal agencies when they develop, procure, maintain, or use electronic and information technology. Under Section 508 (29 U.S.C. '794 d), agencies must give disabled employees and members of the public access to information that is comparable to access available to others.

Specifically, Section 508 of that Act requires that when Federal agencies develop, procure, maintain, or use EIT, Federal employees with disabilities have access to and use of information and data that is comparable to the access and use by Federal employees who are not individuals with disabilities, unless an undue burden would be imposed on the agency.

Unless an exception at FAR 39.204 applies to this acquisition, as evidenced by citation of that exception in the space below, all EIT that the government acquires by purchase or by lease/rental under this acquisition must meet the applicable accessibility standards at 36 CFR Part 1194. (36 CFR 1194 implements Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and is viewable at: <http://www.access-board.gov/sec508/standards.htm>)

Exception from FAR 39.204 that applies:

(contracting officer: indicate which exceptions applies, if applicable)

- The EIT will be acquired by a contractor and will be incidental to contract performance
- The EIT will be located in spaces frequented only by service personnel for maintenance, repair or occasional monitoring of equipment

The following accessibility standards from 36 CFR 1194 have been determined to be applicable to this contract/order. See www.section508.gov for more information:

(contracting officer: Unless an exception is indicated in the paragraph above to apply, indicate which of the following standards apply. See www.section508.gov for more information.)

- 1194.21 Software applications and operating systems.
- 1194.22 Web-based intranet and internet information and applications. 16 rules.
- 1194.23 Telecommunications products.
- 1194.24 Video and multimedia products.
