 - (b) Letter from J. E. Pacher (NMPNS) to Document Control Desk (NRC), dated March 25, 2011, Request to Utilize an Alternative to the Requirements of 10 CFR 50.55a(g) for the Repair of Control Rod Drive Housing Penetrations for the Remainder of the License Renewal Period of Extended Operation
 - (c) Letter from P. M. Swift (NMPNS) to Document Control Desk (NRC), dated April 9, 2012, Request to Utilize an Alternative to the Requirements of 10 CFR 50.55a(g) for the Repair of Control Rod Drive Housing Penetrations – Response to Follow-up Request for Additional Information

By letter dated March 4, 2011 (Reference a), Nine Mile Point Nuclear Station, LLC (NMPNS) requested NRC approval of an alternative weld repair strategy for Nine Mile Point Unit 1 (NMP1) Control Rod Drive (CRD) housing penetrations. Attachment 4 of Reference (a) was an affidavit from AREVA NP Inc. justifying withholding proprietary information that was included as Attachment 5 of Reference (a). NMPNS subsequently replaced Reference (a) in its entirety with a revised request in a letter dated March 25, 2011 (Reference b). Attachment 4 of Reference (b) was an affidavit from AREVA NP Inc. justifying withholding proprietary information that was included as Attachment 5 of Reference (b). At the request of the NRC project manager for NMP1, a revised affidavit, addressing the proprietary information contained in Attachment 5 of Reference (a) and Attachment 5 of Reference (b), is hereby provided in Attachment 1 of this letter.

By letter dated April 9, 2012 (Reference c), NMPNS responded to an NRC request for additional information regarding the proposed alternative weld repair strategy for NMP1 CRD housing penetrations. Attachment 4 of Reference (c) was an affidavit from AREVA NP Inc. justifying withholding proprietary information that was included in Attachment 5 of Reference (c). At the request of the NRC project manager for NMP1, a revised affidavit, addressing the proprietary information contained in Attachment 5 of Reference (c), is hereby provided in Attachment 2 of this letter.

made in accordance with 10 CFR 2.390. The information for which withholding from disclosure is requested qualifies under 10 CFR 2.390(a)(4) "Trade secrets and commercial or financial information."

6. The following criteria are customarily applied by AREVA NP to determine whether information should be classified as proprietary:

- (a) The information reveals details of AREVA NP's research and development plans and programs or their results.
- (b) Use of the information by a competitor would permit the competitor to significantly reduce its expenditures, in time or resources, to design, produce, or market a similar product or service.
- (c) The information includes test data or analytical techniques concerning a process, methodology, or component, the application of which results in a competitive advantage for AREVA NP.
- (d) The information reveals certain distinguishing aspects of a process, methodology, or component, the exclusive use of which provides a competitive advantage for AREVA NP in product optimization or marketability.
- (e) The information is vital to a competitive advantage held by AREVA NP, would be helpful to competitors to AREVA NP, and would likely cause substantial harm to the competitive position of AREVA NP.

The information in these Documents is considered proprietary for the reasons set forth in paragraphs 6(b) and 6(c) above.

7. In accordance with AREVA NP's policies governing the protection and control of information, proprietary information contained in these Documents have been made available, on a limited basis, to others outside AREVA NP only as required and under suitable agreement providing for nondisclosure and limited use of the information.

8. AREVA NP policy requires that proprietary information be kept in a secured file or area and distributed on a need-to-know basis.

9. The foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.
