Chris,

I understand you on site this week so let me know what time works for you and I will try and adjust. I think I have a 10 am and 11 am meeting so before that, or early afternoon will work I think.

I thought I heard Chris leaving you a voice mail on this subject today before he left the office – you may want to check that. I do know that he received the DRAI, and he will be getting back to you very shortly as to whether a call is needed.

John,

Thanks for the heads up. Also, I sent Chris a draft RAI yesterday and have not heard if a call will be necessary. Do you know if he has received that draft RAI?

Rob,

Chris is out of the office this afternoon handling Emergency Preparedness activities, so I am forwarding to you a copy of our response package, dated today, which addresses the subject RAIs.

This package has been submitted using the EIE method, as we normally have done with RAI responses on this project.

Please contact me or Chris with any questions.

- John
