SUBJECT: NOTICE OF LICENSE EXPIRATION

Your U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) license will expire within the next four months. If you wish to continue your licensed program, you should prepare and submit a renewal application on NRC Form 313, following regulations (10 CFR) and licensing guidance (NUREG 1556, Volume/s) listed for your program in Enclosure 3. If the application reflects any significant changes in your licensed program, those changes must be clearly indicated.

You must submit an application for the renewal of your license at least 30 days before the expiration date on the license. If your renewal application is filed (delivered or postmarked) before the expiration date, NRC will use discretion and your license will remain in effect until NRC takes final action on your application.

However, if your renewal application cannot be filed before the expiration date, you should contact NRC immediately to see if you can obtain a temporary extension of the expiration date. Without NRC approval of that extension request, your license expires on the expiration date stated on the license. If your license expires, you no longer have a valid license, but you are required to maintain all licensed materials in safe, locked storage until your application for a license or request for termination is submitted and approved. Use of the licensed material after the expiration of your license may subject you to criminal and/or civil sanctions.

If you do not wish to renew your license, you must dispose of or transfer all licensed radioactive material in your possession in an authorized manner (see the appropriate requirements in 10 CFR 30.36, 40.42, or 70.38); then complete the enclosed Form NRC-314, "Certificate of Disposition of Materials" and return it before the expiration date of your license, with a request that your license be terminated. If you cannot dispose of or transfer all licensed radioactive material in your license before the expiration date, you must request a license renewal, for "storage only", of the radioactive material, to avoid enforcement action for violations involving the possession of licensable material without a valid license. Enforcement action may include a substantial monetary civil penalty that could also include daily civil penalties until you achieve compliance.

This notice of your license expiration is sent for your convenience only and does not mean that similar notices will be sent in the future. The responsibility for timely submission of the license renewal remains with the licensee. If you have any questions about this notice or license expiration/renewal, please contact the NRC Regional Office that handles your license.
