The most current guidance for financial assurance is found in NUREG-1757, volume 3 issued in September 2003. If you have any questions concerning the self-guarantee, the standby trust agreement or the Certification of Financial assurance documents, I will make myself available to you.

Hi Steven-

I just received your letter regarding our need to find a new financial assurance instrument to replace our escrow account. Can you provide any specific guidance on the self-guarantee method. I note Reg Guide 3.66 and NUREG-1757 vol3 are old and likely outdated....

Thanks, Bill
