Liz, thanks for the heads up.

By the way, Dan has not had a chance yet to review the RIC waiver; Hong and I checked. He knows it is a priority. Susan

Hi Susan,

FYI, see question from Scott Burnell (OPA) below re: RIC future and budget as a result of an email from William Freebairn with Platts Publication (re: OMB Memo). Lorna recommended we ask Scott if there is a deadline for his response and stated that any responses to OPA need to go through you. NEI's letter of support is also mentioned in Platts' email below.

Thanks,

Liz

Hi Scott,

Is there a deadline for you to respond to Mr. Freebairn? A waiver for the Chairman's signature has been drafted and is currently with NRR Management for review. Some of the language in that waiver may be appropriate for your response to Freebairn, however, the waiver has not gone through concurrence yet. After NRR completes its review of the waiver, a memo along with the waiver is due to go through ADM, OGC, and OCFO for concurrence and finally to EDO for signature. Then, the Chairman has to approve/sign waiver. We are hoping it will go through concurrence this week.

Please advise and thanks.

Liz;

Just speaking generally, what can we say about RIC's future and our commitment to providing a properly budgeted event? Thanks.

Hi Scott, here are links to those documents I asked about in my phone message. Again the question on the non-conformances is what does the company have to do and does it affect the ability of COL licensees to use the squib valves from SPX? And on the NEI letter, does this indicate there is a review of NRC's conference spending in support of the RIC and if so, where does that stand?

Thanks

This is SPX inspection report with nonconformances:
