Mr. Thomas,

Thank you for contacting us and letting us know of your interest to be part of the survey team for the proposed Dewey-Burdock project. Due to the approaching winter season and KLJ withdrawing their field survey proposal, we are postponing the field survey until the spring of 2013. All consulting tribes will soon get a letter stating the postponement of the field survey until spring.

Sincerely,

Haimanot Yilma

Mr. Yilma:

My name is Rick Thomas, THPO Director for the Santee Sioux Nation of Northeast Nebraska. I'm hereby submitting this e-mail regarding the proposed survey efforts, for the Dewey-Burdock IN-SITU Recovery Project. As an interested Tribe we will allow (1) Qualified representative to join in the survey team. Three weeks is proposed, please if accepted to notify my office or by e-mail on the start dates. Names submitted is Chris Boyd, alternate Fred LaMere to be the individuals for the survey...Both individuals are qualified, worked on the XL Pipeline and completed the Crow Butte Project with extreme knowledge of our Dakota way of life and protocol of acknowledging our spiritual values. If needed I will also be available for administrative reporting...Thank you, Rick Thomas
