Hello Victor,

I am trying to call, or at least leave a telephone answering message to Daniel Dorman at 301-415-1274 at 5:27 pm eastern time because I think he is the one in charge of the SONGS replacement steam generator RAI meeting today. If you call now, you will hear 21 rings, then a message that this wireless customer is unavailable. Then if you call again, you get the same number of rings and the same message. Then if you call again, somebody (at NRR?) finally answers the telephone, asks who you are with, then tells you Mr. Dorman is not available and I should call the Office of Public Affairs.

If he will talk to you, will you tell him that I think the public portion of today's meeting was a waste of the 4 hours I had to take off from work? Specifically, NRC people should cancel the meeting if they cannot be prepared for it before they enter the room.

Thank you,

Tom Gurdziel
