Dennis,

Your interpretation is correct. You have received our final comments on the advanced RAI response.

However, technically, we at NRC cannot say that a draft or advance response is “correct,” “approved” or “acceptable”; the more correct way to say it is the way I said it. As you know, nothing is officially final until it’s received from you as “final”.

Billy,
I just want to confirm my interpretation of your e-mail below. I take it that NRC staff finds the response to this question as acceptable and that we can go ahead and send as final.

Or does the comment that NRC staff has found it acceptable for review indicate that we have not received final comments ?

Thanks,
Dennis

Subject: U.S. EPR Design Certification Application FINAL RAI No. 568 (6713), FSAR Ch. 6

Attached please find the subject request for additional information (RAI). A draft of the RAI was provided to you on December 7, 2012, and on December 11, 2012, you informed us that the draft RAI does not contain proprietary information and that the draft RAI is clear and no further clarification is needed. As result, no change is made to the draft RAI.

The schedule we have established for review of your application assumes technically correct and complete responses within 30 days of receipt of RAIs, excluding the time period of December 24, 2011 thru January 2, 2012, to account for the holiday season as discussed with AREVA NP Inc on November 28, 2012. For any RAIs that cannot be answered within 40 days or January 21, 2012, it is expected that a date for receipt of this information will be provided to the staff within the 40-day period so that the staff can assess how this information will impact the published schedule.”

Thank You,

Amy
