GREETINGS TO SEQUOYAH FUELS CORPORATION,

How dare you whine lessons of moral or ethical obligations regarding my actions, or those of Native Americans for a Clean Environment.¹ You should restrict your pleadings to the legal issues. In the event that you wish to open these proceedings to the issues of moral or ethical obligations; then certainly, there is much to be revealed! However, I do not believe bringing such matters before this Board is a wise use of public resources. Therefore, name any other forum and I will be happy to discuss the moral and ethical obligations surrounding this situation.

I will state this on behalf of Native Americans for a Clean Environment. Our strong words and positions arise from protection. Something the Sequoyah Fuels Corporation, the Atomic Energy Commission, and the Nuclear Regulatory Commission has an established record of being inept at providing our communities during the last quarter of a century. Our positions are not born in anger, vindictiveness, nor even "slanderous" as you have stated. All things considered; again, how dare you.

You are welcome to make an appointment with us to clarify why General Atomics carries the $10.6 million note from Kerr-McGee on their consolidated financial so the "Machiavellian scheme" you believe NACE has hypothesized may be corrected.

Sincerely,

Lance Hughes
