NRC Proposes $3,500 Civil Penalty to University of Notre Dame Du Lac

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission has proposed a $3,500 civil penalty against University of Notre Dame du Lac, for security-related violations stemming from a routine NRC inspection. The violations were identified at the university, which is located in Notre Dame, Ind.

The NRC conducted the inspection between November 2012 and January of this year. Once the violations of NRC requirements were identified the university took immediate corrective actions to restore compliance.

Details about security-related violations are not made public.

A copy of the enforcement action will be posted on the Agencywide Documents Access and Management System (ADAMS) at the NRC website.
