Dear Sir or Madam:

C & G Technologies, Inc. would like to amend its Byproduct Materials License, Number 13-32739-01, to transfer control of its licensed activities. A description of the transfer of control follows in accordance with Appendix G of NUREG 1556, Volume 9, Revision 2.

If there are any questions concerning this license amendment, please feel free to contact me directly at 812-280-0048 Extension 211.

Sincerely,

Todd Raderer
Chief Operating Officer

C & G Technologies, Inc.

Description of Transfer of Control

1. All of the outstanding stock of C&G Technologies, Inc. is being acquired by BC Technical, Inc., closing to occur on or around July 31, 2013. The name of the corporation, C&G Technologies, Inc., shall not change. Any information that is required regarding this transaction can be requested from Todd Raderer, COO at 812-280-0048 Extension 211, or via email at traderer@cgtscan.com.
2. There will be no changes at this time in personnel or duties that relate to the licensed program. Patrick Byrne will remain the radiation safety officer, and Dale McGuire will remain the individual responsible for monitoring source and its use.
3. There will be no changes at this time to the organization, location, facilities, equipment or procedures that relate to the licensed program.
4. Our surveillance program for ensuring all regulations are being met currently includes monthly radiation surveys, quarterly inventory and leak testing of the sealed sources, and issuing dosimeters to staff that require them by regulation. This will continue to be the case through the time of transfer of control.
5. At this time, the facility shall remain in operation after the change in control. If that should change, all records with regard to the safe and effective decommissioning of the facility will be transferred to the transferee, BC Technical, Inc., or the NRC, as appropriate.
6. The transferee, BC Technical, Inc., will abide by all constraints, conditions, requirements and commitments of the transferor, C&G Technologies, Inc.
